Available online at: <http://handle.dtic.mil/100.2/ADA465744>

"A set of MoMs (measures of merit) have been introduced, and illustrated through a realistic case-study. It has been shown how these can be used to monitor the effectiveness of strategies designed to change the intentions of non-compliant parties, and identify weaknesses in these strategies." - Conclusion

Haas, Michael. George W. Bush, War Criminal? The Bush Administration's Liability for 269 War Crimes. Westport, CT, Praeger, 2009. 388 p.

"For each of the 269 war crimes of the Bush administration, Professor Haas gives chapter and verse in precise but non-technical language, including the specific acts deemed to be war crimes, the names of the officials deemed to be war criminals, and the exact language of the international or domestic laws violated by those officials. The author proceeds to consider the various US, international, and foreign tribunals in which the war crimes of Bush administration defendants may be tried under applicable bodies of law. He evaluates the real-world practicability of bringing cases against Bush and Bush officials in each of the possible venues. Finally, he weighs the legal, political, and humanitarian pros and cons of actually bringing Bush and Bush officials to trial for war crimes." - Book Jacket
